Tippecanoe Arts Federation

TAF

making the arts work

Organization Membership

Help TAF grow the arts and receive incredible membership benefits and opportunities!

Sign up at TippecanoeArts.org/become-a-member/

Free Publicity & Marketing Services

TAF assists with the publicity and marketing of your events and press releases through multiple channels, including the monthly Arts Intersect e-newsletter, direct email campaigns, and social media.

Free & Discounted Facility Rentals

TAF members are eligible for 15 free uses of the Wells Building for meetings, rehearsals, auditions, performances, etc. Members also receive special pricing for larger events held at TAF.

Storage Space

For a small rental fee, organizations can lease storage space.

Free Listing on TippecanoeArts.org

Office & Mail Services

Members may use TAF's street address as a central mailing address and maintain and mailbox at the Wells Building. Nonprofit organizations may also use TAF's Bulk Mail Permit to send direct mail to their constituents. Members are also able to use TAF's copier and printer for a small fee.

Free Workshops

TAF provides free workshops to its members on topics ranging from financial managements to audience development. TAF staff are also happy to provide free consulting services to your organization.

Free & Discounted Fees for Borrowing TAF Equipment

Members of TAF are able to borrow items such as technology equipment, arts supplies, and tents.

Membership Dues

Membership dues are based on the annual budget of your organization.

Fee	Organization Annual Budget
$65	$0 - 24,999
$150	$25,000+